

BRIGHT AGE FOUNDATION

Privacy Policy

Brightage Foundation values your privacy and is committed to protecting your personal information. This Privacy Policy outlines how we collect, use, disclose, and safeguard your information when you visit our website or engage with our services. By using our website, you consent to the practices described in this policy.

1. Information We Collect

We may collect the following types of information:

- Personal Information: This includes your name, email address, phone number, and any other information you provide when you contact us, make a donation, or register for our events or services.
- Usage Data: We collect information about your interactions with our website, such as IP address, browser type, pages visited, and the time and date of your visit.
- Cookies and Tracking Technologies: We use cookies and similar tracking technologies to enhance your experience on our website and collect data about your browsing behavior.

2. How We Use Your Information

We use your information for the following purposes:

- To Provide and Improve Our Services: To process donations, manage registrations, and respond to your inquiries or requests.
- To Communicate with You: To send you updates, newsletters, and information about our programs, events, and initiatives.
- To Analyze Website Usage: To monitor and analyze website performance and user behavior to improve our site and services.
- To Ensure Security: To protect against unauthorized access, misuse, or fraud.

3. How We Share Your Information

We may share your information in the following circumstances:

- With Service Providers: We may share your information with third-party service providers who assist us in operating our website, processing payments, or managing communications.
- For Legal Reasons: We may disclose your information if required by law or in response to legal processes or requests from law enforcement agencies.
- With Your Consent: We may share your information with third parties if you provide explicit consent to do so.

4. Data Security

We implement reasonable administrative, technical, and physical measures to protect your personal information from unauthorized access, disclosure, or misuse. However, no method of transmission over the internet or electronic storage is completely secure, and we cannot guarantee absolute security.

5. Your Rights and Choices

- Access and Correction: You have the right to access and correct your personal information held by us. You can request to update or delete your information by contacting us using the details provided below.
- Opt-Out: You may opt-out of receiving promotional emails or communications from us by following the unsubscribe instructions in those communications or contacting us directly.

6. Children's Privacy

Our website is not intended for use by children under the age of 13. We do not knowingly collect personal information from children under 13. If we become aware that we have collected such information, we will take steps to delete it.

7. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect changes in our practices or legal requirements. We will post any updates on this page and encourage you to review the policy periodically.

8. Contact Us

If you have any questions or concerns about this Privacy Policy or our data practices, please contact us.
